1. Book Launch for Matthew Gwathmey & Anne Compton at Westminster Books on May 16 at 7pm

Westminster Books, Brick Books, and Fitzhenry & Whiteside are pleased to present the launch of two new collections of poems. Join us for readings from Our Latest in Folktales, the debut collection by Fredericton's own Matthew Gwathmey, and Smallholding, the fifth collection by Governor General's award-winning poet Anne Compton. Hosted by Nick Thran, this event features readings and signings by both authors. Refreshments will be served. Back to top.

2. Art is a Spectrum Gallery Launch at 1666 Lincoln Road on May 16 at 6:30pm

Autism Connections Fredericton and the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design (NBCCD) are collaborating on an exciting new initiative. The Art is A Spectrum Gallery celebrates the artistic talents of those with Autism Spectrum Disorder. The idea for this project was brought forward by NBCCD's own Meara Landsburg, a first year Diploma student in NBCCD's Graphic Design program, during her summer employment at Autism Connections Fredericton.

The initiative will be culminating in the launch of a permanent home for Art is a Spectrum in Cameron's Room, located within the Autism Resources Fredericton facility at 1666 Lincoln Road. The display will be open to the public year round during operating hours. This initiative is a wonderful way to celebrate the talents of those on the spectrum and to share with community the gifts that are presented through their art. We are so excited to see this celebration happen. Back to top.

3. York Sunbury Historical Society presents Public Talk on Black Loyalist Migration 1783-1784 on May 16 at 7:30pm

The influence of climate change on Black Loyalist migration from peninsular Nova Scotia to the newly created colony of New Brunswick in 1783-84 is the focus of our May presentation by historian Graham Nickerson. This free event takes place at Government House, 51 Woodstock Road, and will be preceded by the Annual General Meeting of the Society at 7pm. All are welcome and refreshments will be served. For further information, please contact us at frederictonregionmuseum@gmail.com. Back to top.

4. Upcoming Events at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery May 16-23

- May 16 at 7pm: Guest Presentation: Danielle Hogan, *How To Apply To The New Brunswick Art Bank
Please note the change in date for this presentation about the NB Art Bank. This informative and non-intimidating seminar in the RBC Learning Centre is designed to help visual artists and gallerists better understand the process of applying to the New Brunswick Art Bank. No admission required.
- May 18 from 10am- 5pm: International Museum Day & the Saint John String Quartet
Celebrate International Museum Day with us! The Beaverbrook Art Gallery will be open with admission by donation, with a special musical presentation by the Saint John String Quartet at 3pm (performers: David Adams, Danielle Sametz, Christopher Buckley, Sonja Adams.)
- May 23 from 12-1pm: Illustrated Talk on *Rewilding the Beaverbrook Art Gallery: Putting the Beaver Back in the Brook
This is a talk by Janice Wright Cheney. Inspired by the occasion of the 60th anniversary of Beaverbrook Art Gallery, this talk will begin by examining the historical, cultural and ecological importance of the beaver (Castor Canadensis). Images from contemporary art and current environmental research will illustrate the complicated relationship Canadians have with this iconic rodent. The artist will discuss her residency project (ReWild) and ongoing studio practice as a call for conservation and rewilding. Can we put the beaver back in the brook?

5. Upcoming Events at The Topsy Muse May 17 & 25

- May 17 at 7pm: A Night of Comedy with Jimmy MacKinley & Friends. $10 at <http://bit.ly/2H3tCcv>.
Four very funny comics take to The Muse stage for a special night. You won't find a better deal on a night of laughter.
- May 25 at 7pm: Tragedy Ann. $15 at <http://bit.ly/2Jlv1XZ>.
The award-winning music of Guelph folk duo Tragedy Ann inspires chills, provokes smiles, and reminds you to breathe. With the occasional nod to alt. blues and handshake with contemporary folk-rock, Liv Cazzola and Braden Phelan intertwine the storytelling power of Tom Waits with the musical nuance of Mandolin Orange, crafting something simultaneously familiar and fresh.

7. Leo Hays High School Safe Grad presents LHHS Lion King Competition at The Playhouse on May 20 at 7:30pm

An evening filled with fun entertainment, excitement and a lot of laughter is what is promised in this year's edition of the Leo Hayes High School's Lion King Competition. LHHS grade 12 male students will compete to take home the honour of being named the "Lion King". This annual competition which is a Safe Grad fundraiser sees the candidates performing a choreographed dance as a group as well as individual talents in front of their admiring fans and the judges. Some of the talents are surprisingly good while all are very entertaining! There is a fashion show section of the Competition as well where the candidates get to "strut their stuff" while looking great in fancy clothing.

8. Spearhead Theatre announces Inaugural Production: Agnes of God - Tickets on Sale May 21

Spearhead Theatre will stage its first production this fall at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre. The company's production of the John Peilmeier play Agnes of God will run September 4-8, 2019 and feature Spearhead Theatre's Artistic Director Kelly McAllister as Agnes. The show will be directed by Fredericton theatre veteran Tilly Jackson.

Summoned to a convent, court-appointed psychiatrist, Dr. Martha Livingstone, is tasked with assessing the sanity of a novice accused of murdering her newborn baby. Miriam Ruth, the Mother Superior, is determined to keep young Agnes from the doctor, further arousing Livingstone's suspicions. Who killed the infant and who fathered the innocent child? Livingstone's questions force all three women to re-examine the meaning of faith and the power of love, leading to a dramatic, compelling climax.

Spearhead Theatre is one of the latest additions to the city's theatre community joining more than 15 community theatre groups producing work annually. Pre-sale tickets for Agnes of God will be available for purchase beginning May 21. Back to top.

9. The Great Trees of New Brunswick launches May 22 at 6pm at Odell Park Lodge

Goose Lane Editions and the Conservation Council of New Brunswick will celebrate the publication of second edition of The Great Trees of New Brunswick. We will start the evening at 6pm with a guided tour to see some of Odell Park's own beautiful featured trees. At 7pm there will be a presentation at the Lodge by the authors and photographer.

This beautiful second edition, authored by Tracy Glynn and David Palmer, carries on the spirit and passion of the original 1987 edition, written by the late David Foster. Like the first edition, the second edition features a selection of trees drawn from hundreds of nominations from all corners of the province. A copy of the original 1987 edition will be auctioned off at the event for charity courtesy of Chase Benjamin Antiques. Not only does the second edition act as a compendium of New Brunswick's "champion" trees, each beautifully photographed by Arielle DeMerchant, it also doubles as an informative guide to the province's native and introduced species.

Light refreshments will be served and books will be available for sale with all proceeds going to the Conservation Council of New Brunswick. This is a family friendly event and there will be a kid's colouring station. For more information, please contact Nathaniel Moore at 450-4251 or by email at publicity@gooselane.com. Back to top.

3. Storytellers of Canada Conference at Marshall d'Avary Hall, UNB, June 5-9

Storytellers of Canada/Conteurs du Canada welcomes local educators, storytellers and listeners to single ticketed events joining members from across Canada as part of their national conference for 2019. The Conference's 2019 theme is on storytelling in educational settings organized by SC-CC volunteers with our generous co-host, the Faculty of Education, University of New Brunswick.

The theme for 2019's conference is Weaving Baskets of Knowledge - Akonutomahtimok: Askomiw Latokonasuwol Kcicihtuwakonol. The weavers are the storytellers and the baskets of knowledge are the stories. Stories educate and give us joy. They are intergenerational. Stories are a defining part of all cultures, a primary way we make meaning, and a fundamental component of what makes us social beings. What baskets will you share?

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call For Applications: Fredericton Arts Alliance's Artists in Residence Summer 2019

Theme: Trees

Deadline: Applications must be received no later than 4pm on Friday, May 24, 2019.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance invites applications for our 18th Artist in Residence Summer Series. Accepted artists receive a $450 honorarium and can sell their work. We seek emerging and experienced artists working in any media, including architecture, performance, sculpture, music, dance, electronic media, literary arts, visual art, fibre arts and fine craft. We encourage artists from diverse cultural backgrounds.

This summer our theme will be Trees. We invite artists to reflect, as they work, on what trees mean to Fredericton. As different artists in varied media focus their creative energies on this theme, we hope to engender discussion among the artists and members of the public, both local and visitors, who visit the studio over the summer.

The residences, two at a time, will take place in the Casemates in the historic Garrison District, from June 24 to September 2, 2019. Each residency lasts for one week. Interested artists should say how they intend to approach the theme in their written application. Application forms and guidelines are available on the Fredericton Arts Alliance website at www.frederictonartsalliance.ca. More information is available by email to president@frederictonartsalliance.ca.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance plans to mount an exhibition of work produced over the summer at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre in the fall. Participants will be asked to designate a piece for this exhibition. Back to top.
