1. Grounded: Locally Sourced, Locally Produced until Oct. 3 at Gallery 78 and Online

On display until October 3, is the exhibition Grounded: Locally Sourced, Locally Produced, a new body of work by the Studio Head of Ceramics at the NBCCD, Liz Demerson. Exploring soft, feminine forms in shape and using glazes she's created from grasses, seaweed, and trees, and incorporating clay, rock, sand, and minerals in the sculpture with materials from Mactaquac, the Nashwaak and its tributaries, to Sussex, these vessels are the epitome of locality and contain the spirit of this place. The pieces are available for viewing at the Gallery and online at www.gallery78.com.

2. Gallery on Queen & Beaverbrook Art Gallery present Studio Watch: Lucy Koshan until Oct 17

Join us for the 2020 Studio Watch Exhibition featuring emerging artist, Lucy Koshan, in collaboration with the Beaverbrook Art Gallery. Koshan is a visual artist and farmhand living in Sackville. She makes large-scale paintings depicting everyday rural life, and tries to reconcile mundane realities (watching, tending, and repairing) with terrifying ones. She holds a foundation year certificate from the Yukon School of Visual Arts and a BFA from Mount Allison University. Back to top.

3. NBCCD Advanced Studio Practice Free Guest Lecture Series presents Tony Merzetti on Oct. 1

Advanced Studio Practice's Guest Lecture Series is partnering with the Atlantic Centre for Creativity to provide a virtual experience to the annual series. The purpose of the Guest Lecture Series is to model successful contemporary practice to our students and to inform, inspire and ignite art and design dialogue and engagement in the greater public community. They are professional talks delivered by invited guest speakers on art, design and related visual practices.

This week's lecture is:

- Tony Merzetti: *The Accidental Filmmaker - Tony will relate his story as an MBA graduate who turned his back on a traditional, safe, prosperous career in accounting or banking for the uncertain prospects of entering the world of film in New Brunswick in the 1980s. Through his journey, he will relate the life lessons he picked up on the way, and how he balanced film creation activities with paid work in the film sector. Tony Merzetti has been involved in the New Brunswick film community since the mid-80s. He is Executive Director of the NB Film Co-op, a part-time film lecturer at UNB, a filmmaker and crewperson on numerous films primarily in the fields of cinematography and editing.

These noon-hour sessions celebrate the creative, cultural and academic achievements of artists, designers and fine craft practitioners. They are free of charge and open to the public. Watch the lectures on Zoom each Thursday at 12pm at this link: bit.ly/guest-lecture-series. Back to top.

4. Graeme Kennedy at The Topsy Muse on Oct. 2 at 7pm

Graeme Kennedy writes smart, soulful songs crafted with an attention to storytelling that puts them in dialogue with a range of musical greats. After two decades of performing and recording he continues to extend his body of work, which, for all its breadth of allusion, is greater than the sum of its parts.

The Muse has set up our room for physical distancing and has grouped the room in sections to sell the tickets in groups of 2, 3 or 4. Of course, because of this, there are very limited tickets available and they will be sold on a first come first served rule. Tickets will be sold in house only and cash only please. Tickets are $10 each. Back to top.

5. Charlotte Street Arts Centre presents FEST FORWARD on Oct. 2 & 3

FEST FORWARD is a unique festival for emerging NB musicians. The 2020 schedule is as follows:

- October 2 beginning at 7pm: Pallmer, Artifiseer, and Jono with special guest Wolf Castle
- October 3 beginning at 7pm: The Slumps, The Firey, and the Kendra Gale Band

Tickets are $32.84 – $85.88, and may be purchased at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/122073365723>. Come out and support up & coming NB acts as well as your favourite community arts centre! Back to top.

6. Symphony New Brunswick presents Summer Roses at The Playhouse on Oct. 3 at 7:30pm

This concert opens with a tribute to our NB first nations and then blossoms into an exploration of some of our hottest orchestral voices as soloists. Mozart's rousing Symphony #29 brings us all back to a common love. A concert with all of the warmth, beauty and lyricism of a summer rose.

Tickets are $36.52. For more information, visit <https://www.theplayhouse.ca/event/summer-roses/>. Back to top.

7. Fall Colors with Nautical Disaster playing The Hip at Crabbe Mountain Inn on Oct 3 at 5:30pm

Let's celebrate the beauty of fall in New Brunswick with a special evening with the music of the iconic Tragically Hip. With an opening set by Anthony Gray & Hartlin Court, followed by two sets by Nautical Disaster at 7pm.

Advanced tickets are $15 or $20 at the door. Tickets are available now at: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/fall-colors-with-nautical-disaster-tickets-120635689595>. This event will be outdoors, so bring your lawn chair; there is lots of space for social distancing. Back to top.

8. Keith Hallett at The Tippy Muse on Oct. 3 at 1pm

Keith Hallett has been growing his legend since he was a 16 year old wailing on Son House riffs. Hallett's blues are the hypnotic soundtrack to the human condition. Sometimes it gets dark, but it's always real. This is a show not to be missed.

The Muse has set up our room for physical distancing and has grouped the room in sections to sell the tickets in groups of 2, 3 or 4. Of course, because of this, there are very limited tickets available and they will be sold on a first come first served rule. Tickets will be sold in house only and cash only please. Tickets are $20 each. Back to top.

9. Mitch Rayner & Adam Moore at Grimross Brewing Co. on Oct. 3 at 7pm

Catchy tunes and gripping storytelling go hand in hand with Fredericton's own Mitch Rayner. Originally hailing from Summerside, PEI, Mitch brings a great amount of small-town pride into his art. Mitch's acoustic stylings make him stand out from the crowd, with a unique raspy voice, and confidence all over the fret board.

Saint John based singer/song writer Adam Moore is a man on a mission to entertain. Over the years Adam has gained respect from both the public and music community alike for his versatile musicianship and high energy shows. Drawing his sound from the soul of Stevie wonder, the soulful guitar of John Mayer and the ease of Ed Sheeran, Adam infuses his creative song writing with an energetic twist.

Tables are $60 each and you can bring up to 6 people; there are also two groups of two people available for $20. Tickets are available now at: <https://etixnow.com/events/roots-and-soul-music-promotions-present-adam-moore-and-mitch-rayner/oct-3-2020/grimross-brewing-co>. Social distancing will apply please use a face mask when moving about. Tables will be spaced out, and sanitizer available. Back to top.

10. Spearhead Theatre presents Let's Fall in Love Jazz Review at Maxwell's Restaurant on Oct 6 & 17

Spearhead Theatre is excited to announce their partnership with Fredericton's Crowne Plaza. The partnership will see Spearhead Theatre perform two original jazz revues in Maxwell's Restaurant and Bar.

The first of the two revues, Let's Fall in Love, will feature Jacob Martin and Kelly McAllister, with live accompaniment by Keegan Manson-Curry. Let's Fall in Love follows two friends who met on a dating app before the pandemic hit. Navigating online dating is hard enough, but how do you meet your soul mate during a pandemic? Set to jazz standards we all know and love, will these two ever find someone to join their bubble?

Tickets are available through Eventbrite at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/o/food-at-the-crowne-downtown-8277464475>, and are $75 per person for a 4-person bubble, and include a 3 course dinner along with the show. Dinner starts at 5:30pm and the show begins at 7:30pm. Back to top.

11. Mini Gallery Hop on Oct. 8 from 4-7pm

Three galleries are joining forces to offer a Gallery Mini Hop with the backdrop of beautiful autumn foliage. Please bring your community masks.

The Gallery on Queen presents RITUALS showcasing emerging artists Alison Willms and Austin Daigle. Willms, an emerging artist from the east coast of Canada, is a graduate of the Bachelor of Fine Arts program at Mount Allison University. She uses a wide range of media in her practice, including analog photography, printmaking, film, sound, and installation.

Created Here Studio features SARDINIA the work of award-winning artist Janice Wright Cheney. The sardine fishery, once the lifeblood of many East Coast towns, is now closed due to species collapse. SARDINIA is an immersive installation that conjures the sheer abundance of the past. Using video, audio and sculptural elements, SARDINIA projects thousands of sardines swimming, without end on a vaulted ceiling.

Gallery 78 will feature three new exhibitions. Upstairs, The City of Fredericton's 2020 Summer Artist in Residence Program held at Odell Park and the Fredericton Botanic Garden will be highlighted in a group exhibition of works. The exhibit will include works created and inspired by this residency and will range from visual arts, music, fine craft, literature and more. Downstairs will feature works for purchase from a Fredericton collector with an "excellent eye" as well as a bounty of flowers in GATHERED BLOOMS a delightful group exhibition by many favourite gallery artists. Back to top.

12. City of Fredericton Summer Artist in Residence Exhibition at Gallery 78 from Oct. 8-30

The City of Fredericton's 2020 Summer Artist in Residence Program, held at Odell Park and the Fredericton Botanic Garden, will be highlighted in a group exhibition of works. Fourteen artists, practicing a variety of art forms, participated in the program throughout July and August, creating and demonstrating their work to the public. The exhibit will include works created and inspired by this residency and will range from visual arts, music, fine craft, literature and more.

The artists include: Kirsten Stackhouse, Ralph Simpson, Emily Kennedy, Sasha French, Cat Candow, Riel Nason, Sarah Sarty, Tracey Dutt, and Fibre Arts Network Members (FAN): Jasmine Cull, Renata Britez, Karen LeBlanc, Jacqueline Bourque, Carline Simpson, and Darcy Hunter. The exhibition opens on October 8 from 4-7pm. You are invited to mingle outside with artists and tour the gallery in limited numbers. Face masks are required. Gallery hours are Tuesday to Friday from 10am to 4pm, and Saturday from 10am to 3pm, or by appointment. The works can also be viewed online at www.gallery78.com. Back to top.

13. Artisan Market 2020 at Kings Landing on Oct. 10 from 10am to 5pm

Rain Date: October 11, 2020

The Market is located at Hoyt House Lawn, just beside Kings Landing main entrance. The Artisan Market 2020 brings you a great selection of locally handmade fine craft. Here you will find the finest artists in pottery, jewellery, textiles, handmade prints, paintings and more!

For more information, visit: <https://www.facebook.com/events/703574773598133> or contact info@rebritezdesigns.com. Back to top.

14. Braden Lam Album Release with Atlas at Grimross Brewing Co. on Oct. 10 at 7pm

Blending authentic song writing with modern indie flare, Braden Lam is forging the path to a new 21st century folk-pop. Joined by Katelyn Bonomo, the Halifax based duo is hitting the road to celebrate the release of Lam's new album, Inside Four Walls.

Tickets are on sale now for $20 per table of two and $60 for a table of six at: <https://etixnow.com/events/roots-and-soul-music-promotions-present-braden-lam/oct-10-2020/grimross-brewing-co>. Social distancing regulations will apply; tables will be spaced out, sanitizer on hand. We encourage using face masks while moving about. Back to top.

15. Free Online Consultations with UNB's Writer in Residence: David Huebert

David Huebert is UNB's 2020-21 Writer in Residence, and he is holding online office hours for or any NB residents or UNB students working on creative writing. Feel free to drop in any Tuesday between 9-10am or between 2-3pm, or make an appointment! For more information, contact dhuebert@unb.ca. To "drop-in" via Zoom, click here. Back to top.

16. UNB Centre for Musical Arts presents MusicUNB 2020 Fall Live Stream Concerts

We are so excited to continue our proud tradition of bringing music to the university and the broader community. As always, MusicUNB has an interesting array of concerts for you as well as our 2nd Contemporary Music Festival. The only thing different this season is that you will participate virtually! Most of the concerts this season will still be taking place at Memorial Hall, but will be live streamed for online viewing only. Some of the performances will be pre-recorded separately, and then assembled into a video montage to be viewed by our online audience.

Please join us this fall and help us support our performing musicians! Check our web for details of concerts and ticket offerings: <https://www.unb.ca/cel/enrichment/music/music-unb/index.html>. Back to top.

Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Bel Canto Singers of Fredericton's Online Musical Skills Workshop

Do you enjoy singing in a choir, but don't have the opportunity to do so because of COVID-19 restrictions? Do you sometimes wish you had better musical skills (ability to sight read or decipher music)? The Bel Canto Singers of Fredericton are proud to sponsor Musical Skills Workshops this fall for all choristers interested in improving their musical abilities. These 10 half hour workshops led by conductor Justin Guignard will provide you with all the necessary tools to become a better music reader. In addition to the online workshops, you'll be receiving many documents to continue your growth well after these sessions.

- When: Sundays at 7pm starting September 27, ending on December 6 (no session on October 11)
- Where: Online - once you have registered, you will receive weekly links to the zoom meetings
- Cost: $40 for ten sessions

To register, send an email to carolyn.alto@gmail.com to register. Information for payment by e-transfer will be sent along once registration is received. Back to top.

2. Creative Expression Online Workshop, Oct. 1 to Nov. 12

Join instructor Barb Buckley and explore the various ways to creatively express your thoughts and feeling. Understanding the creative process can potentially produce new and exciting insights. Why not take this time to examine how you are using your time, what motivates you, and what brings you joy? Creativity can be a time of unfolding. It can be an opportunity to express your thoughts, feelings, and ideas through any artistic means of your choice, such as various forms of writing, drawing, painting, etc., that you choose.

- Location: Online
- Dates: Thursdays, October 1 to November 12 from 6:30-8:30pm
- Course Fee: $166.75 (HST included)
- Materials:
 - Notebook or paper
 - Pen
 - Pencil
 - Markers or coloured pencils
 - Any artistic materials that personally appeal to you

1. Employment Opportunity for a Francophone Art Educator at École les Éclaireurs

We are looking for a Francophone art educator to facilitate a Zoom Noon Art Club once a week for 6 weeks. We will pay $380 for prep and teaching time. There will be 2 assistants on site to set up class and distribute materials. For more information, contact outreach@beaverbrookartgallery.org. Back to top.

2. NB Arts Board: Creation Program

Application deadline October 1, 2020

The Creation Grant program is designed to provide assistance to professional New Brunswick artists for the research, development and execution of original projects in the arts. Creation Grants are intended to allow artists to devote some or most of their time to research and creative production. For more information, please visit: <https://artsnb.ca/web/programs/creation/>. Back to top.

3. NB Arts Board: Documentation Program

Application deadline October 1, 2020

The Documentation Grant Program is designed to provide assistance to New Brunswick arts professionals and professional artists for the research, development, and execution of original documentation and contextualization (written, film, video, multimedia) of arts activities, arts products or art history. Documentation grants are intended to foster theoretical and critical discourse in the arts. Preference will be given to proposals concerning New Brunswick art or artists. For more information, please visit: <https://artsnb.ca/web/programs/documentation/>. Back to top.

4. New Brunswick Music Industry Development (Mid) Program: Emerging Artist Component

Application deadlines are October 5, 2020 at 6pm & December 7, 2020 at 6pm

To assist emerging artists from New Brunswick with the creation of tools and resources to further develop their career path. Decisions regarding the application will be communicated a maximum of six (6) weeks after the deadline.

The level of investment is up to 75% of eligible expenses, to a maximum of $1,500. Applicants may only receive investment from this component once. The maximum investment that an applicant may receive in a fiscal year for all components combined (excluding the Sound Recording Component) is $10,000. Examples of projects include:

- Production of a professional demo recording (typically 2-3 tracks);
- Marketing, promotional branding and design;
- Photography;
- Promotional video;
- Other tools and resources designed to enhance the applicant's career

Read the MID PROGRAM GUIDELINES to ensure eligibility before submitting an application to this component. Applicants can receive investment from the Emerging Artist Component only once. If you have previously received funding through this component or if you have released a full-length recording physically or digitally under the Applicant Name, you are not eligible for this component.

For more information, please contact the MID Program Officer by email at mid@musicnb.org or visit <https://bit.ly/3mAhUJc>. Back to top.

5. Applications Open: Virtual New Brunswick Youth Choir 2020-2021

Application Deadline: October 13, 2020

Choir was put on hold by the COVID-19 pandemic. Now, even as other activities are resuming, it is likely that choir will continue to be constrained by the pandemic for some time to come. To help young New Brunswick singers build their musical skills and to maintain their connection to mentors and fellow singers during this gap, the NBCF is launching the Virtual New Brunswick Youth Choir.

The Virtual NBYC will have four different conductors. François Ouimet, Dr. Julia Davids, Dr. Michael Zaugg, and a conductor to be determined, will provide musical leadership for one song each, in turn, over the course of the coming year. Each conductor will have their own approach to repertoire, rehearsal and performance, so singers will have a varied experience of different conductors' approaches.

For more information and to apply, please visit: <https://nbcfsite.wordpress.com/new-brunswick-youth-choir/> or email the NBCF office at: nbchoralfed@gmail.com. Back to top.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance gratefully acknowledges the financial support it receives for ARTSnews from the City of Fredericton

The Fredericton Arts Alliance gratefully appreciates the support of the Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation in our efforts to use new technology to bring the arts to a wider audience during this period of isolation. We hope this investment will pay off long into the future when we will again be able to interact directly.
